Regulation

Each participant is responsible for the material he has submitted to the competition. Therefore it undertakes to exclude any responsibility of the organizers towards third parties, also in relation to any subjects depicted in the photographs. It is the competitor's responsibility to inform any interested parties (persons portrayed) in the cases and in the manner prescribed by law, as well as obtaining consent to the publication of the images. In no case may the images sent contain data classified as "special" pursuant to GDPR 2016/679.

By accepting this regulation, the author relieves the promoters of all the responsibilities, costs and charges of any nature that may be incurred due to the content of the photographs. Personal data will be processed in accordance with current legislation.

USE RIGHTS

The competitor, for all the classified works, grants the organizers a complete, non-exclusive and irrevocable use license. The organizers reserve the right to use them in the context of their own non-profit association activities after notifying the author. The author, whose name will always be indicated, still retains the moral rights to his work as well as its intellectual property.
